At least two unscrupulous fellows in the vicinity of Westerly are out on the country roads for the purpose of mulcting automobilists by a new play in the holdup game. They drive in front of approaching automobiles, hoping that a wheel of their wagon may be struck and then make demand for excessive damage, which they anticipate will be paid rather than face threatened arrest, delny and court proceedings. They tried the game on Dr. Michael H. Nestor of Providence, formerly of Westerly, late Friday afternoon, and when disappointed one of the fellows shouted: "We got $100 from a man last week and we came near getting another century out of you."

Oscar, paster of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, the doctor went on an automobile ride to Hope Valley and vicinity. On the return trip to Wasterly, and not far from Hope Valley, Dr. Nestor saw a buggy just ahead of him make a sudden turn in front of the automobile.
